

132856/1

In the name of God Amen I Thomas Under Curry Husbandman, being sick in bodie, but of good be given unto Almighty God, Doe make this my ffiftieth day of may Anno Dni 1631 June 2

I hereby I bequeath my soule into the handes of God my Iesus Christ, my Redeemer by whose blessed merite I tra sformed and my body to be buried in the churchyard of Item I will give and bequeath to the church of yirford Item I will give and bequeath to my daughter Annis Under and bedstead, <sup>one</sup> pair of blankets one Collier, & one pillow, one table, one cupboard and a forme, and the two brass yoke and Caudron all which being valued unto my daughter Annis, at her age of one and twenty year otherwise to remaine in the handes of my Exorcutrix Item I will give and bequeath unto my daughter Annis money, to be paid unto her by my Exorcutrix when she twenty year old.
Item I will give and bequeath to my five godchildren Item I will give and bequeath to my daughter Jeane wheat Item it is my will that all my goods and Chattels, house and after my decease, by my overseer and other honest neighbor and the Consideration thereof to remaine for the mainte so longe as she shall live unmarried and after her decease my two daughteres Jeane wheat and Annis Underwood Item my will is that all my household stuffe within doore and remaine to the use of my wife Jeane Underwood by my overseer and other neighbors, and by them divided

Item I will give and bequeath to my wife Jeane Underwood for the use of good and after her decease two daughteres Jeane wheat and Annis Underwood Item I will give and bequeath to my wife Jeane Underwood
for the use of good and after her decease
two daughteres Jeane wheat and Annis Underwood

God Amen I Thomas Underwood of yixford in the County of Dunelm being sicke in bodie, but of good and perfect Remembrance Equalled Almighty God, Doe make this my last will and Testament upon the which maies Anno Dni 1631 In the manner and forme following Soule into the handes of God my maker and Creator, and his favour and by whose blessed merits I trust to have Remission of all my sins be buried in the Churchyard of yixford I bequeath to the Church of yixford

I bequeath to my daughter Annis Underwood one feather bed one of blanket one Collier, two paire of shoes, two bolts and one Cubbord, and a forme, and three Coats, a dosen of yewtree andron all which being valued in worth shewen shoud be delivred at the age of one and twenty yeeres if then she shall have need of hym in the handes of my Executors until she shall have need of hym I bequeath unto my daughter Annis Underwood sixteene poundes in sterling by my Executors when she shall accomplish the age of one and I bequeath to my five godchildren six pind a peere, I bequeath to my daughter Jane Wheatley six pind my goods and Chattels, Corns and Cattel withank doores, by praiseful overseers and other honest neighbours, and at their best advantage shoud be sold to remaine all for the maintenance of my wife Jane Underwood till she be remarried, and after she dooeth to be equally divided betwene my daughter Annis Underwood

1632 B56