The last item wanted of all, might be good and convenient for a man to have, which may be called a Council or Chamber, wherein he may confer with his friends, and be advised of what to do. Many such places are now made, and are very convenient, and may help us much in our travels.

In Alpine Countries

Junctions are intersected forming polygonal blocks from which are made up the walls and the little tables.
Structure is thick and strong.
The seven pairs of little stone tables elevated from the surrounding ground form mud mounts.
