

16170 371

11th day of April in the year of

In the name of our Lord God the Father and of our Lord Jesus Christ the Son and of the Holy Spirit the Comforter I Thomas of Ipswich in the County of Essex Esquire being sick of this kind and of such manner as is expressed by writing this my will and testament in manner and form following to wit

That I give and bequeath unto my son John Thomas all my lands and tenements and hereditaments which I have or shall have in the County of Essex and elsewhere and to the heirs of my said son John Thomas forever

And I give and bequeath unto my daughter Anne Thomas all my lands and tenements and hereditaments which I have or shall have in the County of Essex and elsewhere

I have given and bequeathed of all my goods and chattels of what kind soever late of descent or taken value and found by appraisement by William Dymptre John Dymptre Estrenge Randall Abbot & Matthew Dymptre as Executors

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

Item I have given and bequeathed unto my daughter Anne Thomas one pair of silver shoes one pair of silver slippers and a little silver bracelet

16170 372

