

In Dei nomine. Amen. The second day of October in the year 1620.

Nicholas Bowley of London, in countenour and authority, do hereby certify that my last will bearing date the first day of January 1620, in the presence of my lawful witnesses, viz. Richard, I bequeath my soule to the mercifulnes of Almighty God, my maker, Redeemer, sanctifier, & full, & whole All-Saviour. And my body to be Christianly buried, according to the good discretion of my Executors hereunder nominated. Item, concerning my worldly good & dispose, as followeth, viz. Inquid, I give to my son Anthony Bowley my title in the house of my wife's house, as now upon the dyming of the same, with all furniture, and of my said house, with one waste plot, & one close, with the part of the gift of my father, & my twoe former testaments.

Item, I give to my first daughter Ann, now the wife of John De Bouvour, fortye shillings of lawful English money: & to her son, Christopher De Bouvour, & to her son John De Bouvour, & to her daughter Ann De Bouvour.

Item, I give to my daughter Ann Bowley, now the wife of John De Bouvour, finally, & constitute, & appoint Agnes my wedded wife, to be my sole, & executrix in respect of the residue of my said estate, as last is will. And, to her & hers, after my death, peace, & quietnes, & comfort, & my other furniture, & goods, & debts, & all my goods, & debts, and down, & unto the said, & hers.

In witness whereof, I the said Nicholas Bowley, Testat. gave & subscribed set my hand, with my own hand made, the day & year above written. Thus testifies. Nicho Bowley. Recte.

Signum Nicholae Bowley, testis. Signum Agnes, uxoris, testis.

Probatum fuit hunc testamētum in sua forma & veritate esse verum & legitimum. Et hoc testamētum fuit legitimum & legitimum. Et hoc testamētum fuit legitimum & legitimum. Et hoc testamētum fuit legitimum & legitimum.
