

1624 & 1612

A true & exact Inventory of the goods & debts of John Edwors late of London husbandman taken by John More Thomas & John Hamer & John Page 1624 of May 1624.

Impmies & apparell & money in his purse	50 ^s
Item 2 Blankets a piece of cloth one bottle of wine	20 ^s
a small tubb & other household	10 ^s
Item 2 stalks of wood & 2 sheep	20 ^s
Item in debts	32 ^s
Item in small doubtful debts	74 ^s 12 ^d
Suma

John More
John Street script
1624
John C of Page

Thomas Hamer
John Page

John More
John Street script
1624
John C of Page

1624 B/11

John Finer (alias Elliot) being sick in body and of a short remembrance made this his last will & testament the 24th day of August 1624 First he bequeathed his soules soules to the mercie of almighty god in whose body he is buried in Church of St. Dunstons of Turis. my will is that my wife and Chi Wren should live to gett in this house until my wife be dead shee shall have in it her & my Childs. I give to my wife that after she is dead the living should be sold for the use of the living stocks for the rest of my children.

shee wither for years and as the will is written.

Mary Maynard wth mark

Alice Snowe her wth mark

Joane Ayloffe her wth mark

John Finer (alias Elliot) being sick in body and of a short remembrance made this his last will & testament the 24th day of August 1624 First he bequeathed his soules soules to the mercie of almighty god in whose body he is buried in Church of St. Dunstons of Turis. my will is that my wife and Chi Wren should live to gett in this house until my wife be dead shee shall have in it her & my Childs. I give to my wife that after she is dead the living should be sold for the use of the living stocks for the rest of my children.

John Finer (alias Elliot) being sick in body and of a short remembrance made this his last will & testament the 24th day of August 1624 First he bequeathed his soules soules to the mercie of almighty god in whose body he is buried in Church of St. Dunstons of Turis. my will is that my wife and Chi Wren should live to gett in this house until my wife be dead shee shall have in it her & my Childs. I give to my wife that after she is dead the living should be sold for the use of the living stocks for the rest of my children.

John Finer (alias Elliot) being sick in body and of a short remembrance made this his last will & testament the 24th day of August 1624 First he bequeathed his soules soules to the mercie of almighty god in whose body he is buried in Church of St. Dunstons of Turis. my will is that my wife and Chi Wren should live to gett in this house until my wife be dead shee shall have in it her & my Childs. I give to my wife that after she is dead the living should be sold for the use of the living stocks for the rest of my children.