

The 26th of September 1639

The last will and Testament of Margaret Hewitt late of Farnham deceased made and declared by her and her first and bound written was as followeth, vizt I do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Marie five shillings I do will of my goods Cattle and Chattels shd given to my daughter Joane the wife of John Sun making her executrix of this my last will and Testament.

Declared as per last will & Testament in the presence of

John Knight
Tho: Mason

18th die Decembris Anno Dni 1639^o

Probatum fuit quod tunc Margta Jovon de Farnham defuncta per me Johon Brooke in Equibus barr^{is} Curiam Commissarij fuit Admis amicus bonorum et dca defuncta Joana Sunmi uxore Johis Sunmi soli Exec^{utrici} in hunc tunc nominat de bono et dca solvendi et iurat et fidei iurata salvo et obligatus Johes Sunmi de Farnham Ex^{ecutor}.

1639
17th of Decemb: 1639

I the said will and I the said Thomas the son of Margaret Howell late of London deceased made and declared by deed and word just above written was as follows to wit: I pausing remembered my soul to God and my body to his church and my goods and chattels to my daughter Marie and to the heirs of her body lawfully begotten and I the said Thomas gave to my daughter Marie for my self of her own marriage her execution with my last will and testament.

Declared by me the said Thomas
in the presence of

John Knight

John Knight

17th of Decemb: 1639
1639

[Faint, mostly illegible text, likely a witness or notary record]

1639
All the contents of all the goods chattels of Margaret Howell late of Hornham deceased.

Imprimis ready money £100 £100

1639 B4011