WINCHESTER AND THE NORMAN CONQUEST

A one-day symposium dedicated to exploring the impact of the Norman Conquest on Winchester.

Saturday 19 October 2019 • 9.00am – 5.30pm

The King Alfred Conference Chamber, Guildhall, Winchester, SO23 9GH

'Winchester is intimately involved in the history of the Norman Conquest. It was here in 1070 that William the Conqueror was crowned for a second time; it was here in 1076 that the last English rebel, Earl Waltheof, was executed; it was here that a new cathedral began to rise from 1079. It was almost certainly here, at the close of William's reign, that Domesday Book or 'the great book of Winchester' was written. There are, in short, few better places to discuss the impact of the events of 1066.'
