

Shining a Light on Roman Roadside Settlements in South-East England and Beyond

Saturday 7th June 2025

Kings Church, Brooks Road, Lewes, Sussex, BN7 2BY

A Sussex Archaeology and History

hybrid conference (ie with online option) in association with the Surrey Archaeological Society's Roman Studies Group

PROGRAMME

09.15-10.00am	REGISTRATION	Bookstalls and stands
10.00-10.10am	Dr David Rudling	AM Chairman's Welcome
10.10-11.00am	Prof Tony King	On the road in the Western Roman Empire: ancient motels, caravanserais and emporia.
11.00-11.30am	COFFEE & BISCUITS	Visit the bookstalls & stands
11.30-12.15pm	Mike Luke	Alfoldean: what do we know after 100 years of archaeological investigation?
12.15-1.00pm	David Calow	Four coin-rich roadside settlements in Surrey
1.00-2.00pm	LUNCH BREAK	Visit the bookstalls and stands
2.00-2.40pm	Chris Butler	The Roman settlement at Hassocks in its landscape setting, and its Anglo-Saxon successor
2.40-3.20pm	Blake Galloway	Bridge Farm: the nature of a defended settlement at the junction of two Roman roads and the River Ouse
3.20-3.40pm	TEA & BISCUITS	Visit the bookstalls and stands
3.40-4.10pm	Matt Sparkes and David Rudling	Roman Croydon: the course of the road and the location of the settlement
4.10-4.40pm	David Staveley	Icklesham: Which came first, the chicken or the settlement?
4.40-4.50pm	David Calow	PM Chairman's Closing Remarks

Conference Fees (including refreshments as above): £20 (or Early Bird £18) OR £15 Online (or Early Bird £12).

To book via Eventbrite:

<http://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/1308492308719>