PARKING

The one-way system and pedestrianised High Street makes Leatherhead somewhat challenging for car drivers and it should be noted that parking at the Institute is extremely limited. However public parking is available at various locations in the town. Many of these places are short stay only, including the parking in the Swan Centre off Lerets Way, which has a maximum stay of 4 hours.

Plenty of Long Stay parking is available in Randalls Road Car Park – charge is 60p for the first hour and 30p for every half hour thereafter. There are a few Long Stay places in the Church Road Car Park. On Saturdays it is possible to park in the large Railway Station Car Park for a flat fee (at the last time of looking it was £3.40). The Institute is about a 10 to 15 minute walk from the Long Stay Car Parks.

LUNCH

There are a variety of establishments in Leatherhead with a fish & chip/burger shop, 2 pubs and 4 cafes/restaurants plus a Greggs in the High Street with further cafes and a pub in Church Street and North Street. In addition Sainsbury's, just off the High Street in the Swan Centre, sells sandwiches etc. and the Swan Centre also has a coffee shop. You are also welcome to bring a packed lunch and eat it in the hall. Tea and coffee will be available in the hall during the lunch break.
