VILE VICTORIAN JOBS FOR CHILDREN

Discover how tough life was for a working class Victorian child. Would you like to have dodged flying mill machines or used arsenic, sulphur and lead everyday at work? Learn how dangerous it was to make wallpaper, porcelain or even a humble match. Without schools to go to, find out what perils these children had to face for very low pay, just in order to survive. Maybe homework isn't so bad after all!

£5 per child (includes 1 accompanying adult)
