

Fantastic Scarecrows and Where to Find Them

Schools and Youth Groups Scarecrow Competition 2017

The great scarecrow competition returns again as part of this year's Herald of Spring, 11 March 2017. Local primary schools and youth groups are invited to enter our competition and be inspired to create a scarecrow on this year's theme of magic.

Scarecrow criteria:

- Entries must follow the theme of magic.
- Props may be used with the scarecrow.
- Scarecrows must include some plant material which can be living, fresh or dried.
- They should be no taller than 1.8m tall and be able to withstand all weather conditions.
- The use of recycled materials is encouraged.

Scarecrows must be brought to Bourne Hall on Wednesday 8 March 2017. The scarecrows will be judged by the Mayor of Epsom & Ewell on Saturday 11 March 2017.

PRIZES:

1st place £100 vouchers of your choice
2nd place £50 vouchers of your choice
